SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1A
REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. The Commander of the Soviet naval base at Sevastopol ordered all Soviet freighters south of the 44th parallel on the Black Sea, whether carrying war material cargoes or not, to carry one semi-heavy anti-aircraft gun, two anti-aircraft machine guns of any type, the necessary equipment for these guns, and two anti-aircraft balloons. Ship inspection certificates dated 1 May 1951 also are required. All Soviet freighters sailing beyond the Bardanelles were ordered to communicate every six hours with certain Soviet naval bases. The order was effective 4 July 1951.
2. Informants believe, but are not certain, that the order applied to Bulgarian and Rumanian vessels also.
